

Commonly Requested Veterinary Compounding Ideas for Equine Patients

Commonly Requested Formulas for Horses with Pain or Soreness:

- ❖ Benzocaine 2%/Camphor 0.5%/Menthol 0.5% Topical Gel

Commonly Requested Formulas for Horses with Cuts, Scrapes or Wounds:

- ❖ Gentamicin 1% Topical Gel
- ❖ Gentamicin 0.04%/Betamethasone 0.02% Topical Spray
- ❖ Anhydrous Topical Spray (Actives can be added into this base to customize to each patient's needs).
- ❖ PracaSil®-Plus/Poloxamer Topical Gel (Actives can be added into this base to customize to each patient's needs).

Commonly Requested Formulas for Horses with Itching or Inflammation from Dermatological Issues:

- ❖ Tranilast 1% Anhydrous Topical Spray
- ❖ Tranilast 1% Topical Gel
- ❖ Pramoxine HCl 1% Topical Spray

Commonly Requested Formulas for Horse Feed:

- ❖ Oral Flavored Powder (A variety of drugs may be incorporated into this sweet powdered base).
- ❖ Acetazolamide Feed Additive

Commonly Requested Formulas for Horses Requiring Hoof Care:

- ❖ PracaSil®-Plus can be used on hooves prior to showing to impart a sheen without making them overly shiny. This base is also a good moisturizer for the hoof.
- ❖ Vitamin E Acetate 0.5% Topical Oil

Commonly Requested Oral Paste Formulas for Horses:

- ❖ Apple Flavored Oral Paste
- ❖ Molasses Vet Paste
- ❖ Flavored Cherry Oral Paste
- ❖ Azithromycin 200 mg/mL Anhydrous Oral Paste

Commonly Requested Formula for Horse Treats:

- ❖ Oat Base Treats

Commonly Requested Formulas for Poloxamer Gel:

Poloxamer gel is thermoreversible, meaning it is liquid at cold temperatures and a gel at body temperature, and adheres to body cavities, both internal and external. A variety of drugs can be incorporated into it, and it is water washable. This gel is useful in areas such as: sinus cavities, ears, external wounds, internal abscesses, mouth, eyes, and others.

- ❖ Poloxamer 407 20% Gel
- ❖ Poloxamer 407 30% Gel

Our compassionate employees are ready to help you